Drawing on a wealth of historical and contemporary evidence, [Author's Name] shows how the concept of humanitarian intervention has been used to legitimize wars of aggression, from the Iraq War to the Libyan intervention. He argues that this new form of imperialism is as dangerous as it is deceptive, and that it poses a grave threat to global peace and security.

In this essential read, [Author's Name] offers a powerful indictment of humanitarian imperialism and calls for a new approach to international relations that is based on respect for sovereignty, self-determination, and the rule of law.
