If you're like most parents, you probably want to raise your children to be responsible, respectful, and successful adults. But how do you do that? How do you discipline your children in a way that is effective but also loving?

In his book, Parent Story of Tough Love, author John Rosemond offers a practical guide to disciplining your children using tough love. Rosemond believes that tough love is not about being harsh or punitive. Instead, it's about setting limits, being consistent, and holding your children accountable for their actions.

Rosemond provides parents with a step-by-step plan for disciplining their children effectively. He covers everything from how to deal with tantrums to how to set limits and enforce consequences. Rosemond also offers advice on how to talk to your children about tough topics, such as sex, drugs, and alcohol.

Parent Story of Tough Love is a valuable resource for any parent who wants to raise responsible and resilient children. Rosemond's practical advice and insights will help you to discipline your children effectively and build a strong, loving relationship with them.
